This is a superb trip to some of the finest animal viewing in the world. We will be in the Maasai Mara at a time when the annual Wildebeest Migration should be occurring. This migration involves over a million Wildebeest, as well as several hundred thousand Zebra and Gazelle, the predators that follow them and other animals as they follow their food supply north from Tanzania throughout the summer into the fall. We have timed the trip to catch the migration. The remainder of the safari takes you north of Nairobi to the spectacular Mt. Kenya region and Ol Pejeta Ranch, a rhino sanctuary and breeding facility with excellent game viewing as well as to Amboseli National Park, in the shadow of Mt. Kilimanjaro and known for its elephant herds. We have meticulously planned this trip based on repeated trips to the region, and this year's trip includes more time devoted to searching for rhinos and significantly less driving time between locations as we will fly instead of driving long distances. The company we use is an excellent company, and we have personal experience with them and their staff. You will not find a comparable trip at anything close to this price, and in many cases we use accommodations superior to those found in higher priced tours. All in all a superb trip at a very reasonable price

Pricing: $6,999.00 per person double occupancy – land only
Single supplement $999.00

Airfare – estimated to be approximately $1500-$1600 per person
Schedule and firm pricing out in Fall of 2025

This trip will awe you, inspire you, some times leave you speechless and oftentimes amazed at what you have seen. Wildlife throughout Africa is under immense pressure from development and poaching. If you have been considering a trip to Africa, please do so before it is too late.

Tourism to Kenya and other parts of Africa is one of the best tools available to stem the loss of habitat and species throughout Africa. My wife Nancy and I are foster parents at the David Sheldrick Elephant Orphanage and your visit there as a foster parent (included in your safari price) just might be one of many highlights of your trip to Kenya. I always leave Kenya with a new appreciation for Africa and the challenges it faces. I hope you will too
